PURPOSE

Student evaluation at Saskatchewan Polytechnic must be a fair and transparent process ensuring all graded assessments reflect learning outcomes and are developed and conducted in the best interests of student learning while maintaining appropriate standards. This policy provides information related to the evaluation of student learning including evaluation criteria, evaluation methods, and the conduct of examinations and tests. It also outlines requirements for students to ensure completion of assessments including examinations and tests.

POLICY

At the beginning of each Saskatchewan Polytechnic credit course, students will be provided with a course outline that provides the course description, pertinent course information, learning outcomes and assessment tools. Saskatchewan Polytechnic credit courses may use a variety of assessments including examinations, tests and other evaluation tools that link directly to the learning outcomes.

Student examinations and tests will be scheduled and invigilated in an environment that promotes academic integrity and supports academic success.

This policy applies to all Saskatchewan Polytechnic credentialed programs and all Saskatchewan Polytechnic credit courses, including those offered through the regional colleges.¹
