

Saskatchewan Health Card

International Students Guide

What is a Saskatchewan Health Card?

A Saskatchewan Health Card, also referred to as provincial health card, allows holder to access universal health benefits. Please refer to eHealth website for detailed information on these benefits: Health Benefits Coverage | Prescription Drug Plans and Health Coverage | Government of Saskatchewan

Once an international student resides in Saskatchewan and is enrolled full-time, they are eligible to apply for a Saskatchewan Health Card. Students must register themselves, including their accompanying spouse/partner and dependents (if applicable).

Note:

Enrolled refers to students whose program already started and currently attending. Accepted refers to students expected to be enrolled in the upcoming intake.

Student whose program has not started is not eligible to apply for Saskatchewan Health Card. It is strongly recommended that students arrange an insurance that covers for the time in Canada before classes start, and for additional 6 to 8 weeks while application for your SK health card is being processed.

FAQs

Q: If my student study permits is about to expire, how will this affect my Saskatchewan Health Card coverage?

A: International students automatically lose their Health Card coverage when their study permit expires.

Q: What if International Students do not have Health Cards? How will this affect their ability to access medical attention?

A: Students will have to pay for any medical expenses or maintain medical insurance coverage.

Q: If international students do not have Health Cards, will they receive Health Card coverage immediately upon application?

A: No. Health Card coverage is only available once students receive their Health Cards. Application is not a guarantee of coverage.

Q: If international students pay for medical expenses prior to receiving their Saskatchewan Health Cards, can they be reimbursed for those medical expenses after receiving their Health Cards?

A: International students that have applied for a Saskatchewan Health Card but have not received it will have to pay for any medical expenses they incur. Students may keep all receipts and submit them to eHealth after receiving their Saskatchewan Health Card; however, there is no guarantee that their expenses will be reimbursed. If the student is facing a life-threatening medical emergency, they can contact eHealth and request to have their application brought to the front of the line for review.

Q: What coverage is provided to international students with a Saskatchewan Health Card?

A: The same coverage as Saskatchewan domestic residents. Please refer to the following website for details about domestic universal health benefits:

Health Benefits Coverage | Prescription Drug Plans and Health Coverage | Government of Saskatchewan

Q: Are there coverage limitations for international students with a Saskatchewan Health Card?

A: Limitations are the same as for Saskatchewan domestic residents. Please refer to the following website for details about domestic universal health benefits: Health Benefits
