PURPOSE

Saskatchewan Polytechnic facilities and grounds are used primarily in the delivery of training of students. This policy establishes consistent principles and guidelines under which Saskatchewan Polytechnic will permit the use of its facilities and grounds to promote academic, professional, administrative, athletic, social, and cultural activities.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Saskatchewan Polytechnic may permit the use of its facilities and grounds by faculty, staff, students and the general public, provided such use does not:

- i. Conflict with Saskatchewan Polytechnic's Mission, Vision and Values;
- ii. Cause interference with the orderly functioning of Saskatchewan Polytechnic business;
- iii. Infringe on the rights and privileges of others;
- iv. Promote hatred, contempt or discrimination;
- v. Advertise, promote or operate programs, services or activities that are in competition with Saskatchewan Polytechnic;
- vi. Conflict with current contracts or agreements; or,
- vii. Directly or indirectly contravene provisions of any Saskatchewan Polytechnic policy, or municipal, provincial or federal law or statute.

POLICY

Saskatchewan Polytechnic owned or leased facilities and grounds are to be used primarily for education and training purposes.
