SIAST cuts ribbon on nursing facility

Project funded through federal, provincial cost-sharing program

March 22, 2012 – SIAST will be joined by representatives of the federal and provincial government when it officially opens the SIAST Wascana Parkway Centre in Regina today. Renovations to the building were recently completed to accommodate expanded nursing education. Work on the building was funded through the federal and provincial governments’ cost-sharing Knowledge Infrastructure Program.

Ray Boughen, MP, and Russ Marchuk, MLA, will be on hand for the event.

Media are invited to attend.
