Sold out - SIAST business banquet

More than 450 tickets have been sold to the 25th annual Palliser Business and Industry Banquet. The sold-out event features guest speaker John Gormley, prominent Saskatchewan personality and talk radio host. Gormley is a former Member of Parliament, having served in the House of Commons for one term in the 1980s. Before returning to Saskatchewan to host the radio show, Gormley was a labour lawyer in Edmonton.

At the banquet, business and industry representatives from the Regina and Moose Jaw area will mingle with SIAST Palliser Campus students, who will practise their job-search and networking skills with potential employers.

This event will take place on:

Date: Thursday, Jan. 20th, 2005
Time: 6:00 p.m., dinner at 7:00 p.m. with keynote to follow
Place: SIAST Palliser Campus
Cafeteria and Macoun Lounge
Sask. St. & 6th Avenue N.W., Moose Jaw, SK

Proceeds raised by the dinner will support full first-year tuition Centennial Merit Scholarships and achievement awards at SIAST Palliser Campus.

SIAST is Saskatchewan's primary public institution for post-secondary technical education and skills training, recognized nationally and internationally for its expertise and innovation. More than 12,000 students are registered in SIAST programs, which touch every sector of the economy; additionally, the organization draws almost 29,000 individual course registrations. It operates campuses in Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Regina and Saskatoon, and provides a number of courses and programs through distance education.
