SIAS ceremonies recognize grads, awards winners

SIAS Palliser Campus will hold two special events to recognize students and graduates on Saturday, April 30. Both events will be held in the Hildebrand Chapel at Caronport.

A scholarship and awards presentation recognizing exceptional achievement will begin at 10 a.m. Almost 150 scholarships and awards will be handed out, representing the majority of the 204 scholarships and awards, worth $205,182, presented in the 2004/2005 academic year.

Also included at the ceremony will be the presentation of three Excellence in Teaching Awards, given to instructors who are exceptionally effective and responsive to the needs of students.

The second event will be the SIAS Palliser Campus annual graduation ceremony. This event begins at 1:30 p.m. During the ceremony, SIAS Palliser Campus will award an honorary diploma. The recipient – Yvette Moore, artist, entrepreneur and Moose Jaw business woman – will address the graduands.

In attendance will be the Honourable Deb Higgins, Minister of Labour; Glenn Hagel, MLA for Moose Jaw North; Dr. Bob McCulloch, president of SIAS; and special dignitaries from the community of Moose Jaw and the surrounding area.
