SIAS connects students, industry at banquet

Chamber of Commerce CEO to address students and employers

Moose Jaw, February 13, 2008 – Approximately 400 tickets have been sold for SIAS Palliser's Business & Industry Dinner tonight. This year's fundraising event provides students with networking opportunities to connect with potential employers and has attracted 54 different companies, up from 42 companies in 2007. Steve McLellan, CEO of the Saskatchewan Chamber of Commerce, will address dinner guests.

Proceeds raised from the dinner benefit scholarships and achievement awards for SIAS Palliser Campus students.

Media are welcome to attend this event. For ticket information, please contact Tawnia Stephanson, SIAS Scholarships and Development, at 306-694-3958.
