SIAS Palliser honours grads, award winners

Christine Boyczuk to receive honorary diploma, address grads

April 26, 2007 – Past SIAS board chair and prominent Moose Jaw resident Christine Boyczuk will receive an honorary diploma in Business at the SIAS Palliser Campus graduation ceremony on Saturday. Boyczuk, recognized for her outstanding contribution to education and the community, will also address graduates at the ceremony.

Earlier that day, SIAS will recognize exceptional achievement at the scholarship and awards ceremony. The ceremony recognizes the winners of more than 150 scholarships and awards, valued at more than $89,000. Award recipients have been chosen based on their academic excellence, leadership and professional promise.

In attendance will be the Hon. Deb Higgins, Minister of Learning; Wilson Olive, SIAS board chair; Dr. Bob McCulloch, SIAS president and CEO; and special dignitaries from the community of Moose Jaw and the surrounding area.

Media are invited to attend both events.
