

Putting knowledge to work.

ATTENTION NEWS AND ASSIGNMENT EDITORS

MEDIA ADVISORY

SIAST ceremonies recognize grads, awards winners

SIAST Palliser Campus will hold two special events to recognize students and graduates on Saturday, April 29. Both events will be held in the Hildebrand Chapel at Caronport.

A scholarship and awards presentation recognizing exceptional achievement will begin at 10 a.m. More than 150 scholarships and awards will be handed out, representing the majority of the 241 scholarships and awards for this academic year. In total, almost $300,000 in awards will have been presented in the 2005/2006 academic year.

Also included at the ceremony will be the presentation of three Excellence in Teaching Awards, given to instructors who are exceptionally effective and responsive to the needs of students.

The second event will be the SIAST Palliser Campus annual graduation ceremony. This event begins at 1:30 p.m. During the ceremony, well-known Saskatchewan journalist and business commentator Paul Martin will address the graduands.

In attendance will be the Honourable Deb Higgins, Minister of Learning; the Honourable Glenn Hugel, Minister of Culture, Youth and Recreation; Dr. Bob McCulloch, president of SIAST; and special dignitaries from the community of Moose Jaw and the surrounding area.

When: Saturday, April 29
 Scholarship – 10 a.m.
 Graduation – 1:30 p.m.
Where: Hildebrand Chapel, Caronport

For more information, please contact:

Cal Thomas
Marketing and Communication Services
SIAST Palliser Campus
Ph: (306) 694-3194 / Fx: (306) 694-3172
Email: thomasc@siast.sk.ca

Information about SIAST can be found at www.goSIAST.com