SIAS spins for change

Tour de Palliser event will raise money for student scholarships

March 25, 2009 – Staff, students and community teams are set to participate in the Tour de Palliser, an event raising money for student scholarships at SIAS. Community teams include representatives from the City of Moose Jaw, Moose Jaw Chamber of Commerce, and the local radio stations. Participants will compete on stationary bikes for most miles logged in 40 minutes on:

Date: March 26, 2009
Time: 11:30 am – 1 pm
Location: SIAS Palliser Campus, Cafeteria

Media are invited to attend.

Since the Change for the Better campaign began in 2005, SIAS faculty, staff, students, directors, alumni and retirees have contributed more than $112,000 to fund student scholarships and bursaries, and to establish new endowments and trusts. With additional dollars available through the Centennial Merit Scholarship program, the total rises to almost $175,000. The 2009 Change for the Better goal is to raise $60,000 in donations and pledges.
