New nursing program at SIAS

Psychiatric Nursing program launched in Saskatchewan

November 14, 2008 – SIAS will hold a special event Monday, November 17, 2008 to celebrate the launch of our newest nursing education program.

The SIAS Psychiatric Nursing program focuses on educating nurses in the delivery of quality mental health care and services to patients, making a difference to those who matter most.

Meet the 30 men and women who have enrolled in SIAS's newest nursing education program this fall. Find out what motivated them to choose this very specialized and rewarding nursing career.

The Honourable Rob Norris, Minister of Advanced Education, Employment and Labour, will bring greetings from the provincial government.

Media are invited to attend.
