Grand chief awarded honorary diploma

SIAS Woodland recognizes Gary Merasty for entrepreneurial spirit

June 10, 2005 – The grand chief of the Prince Albert Grand Council (PAGC) has been awarded an honorary diploma in Entrepreneurship and Small Business from the Saskatchewan Institute of Applied Science and Technology at the annual SIAS Woodland Campus graduation ceremony.

Grand Chief Gary Merasty, head of the largest tribal council in the province, is currently serving a second three-year term as grand chief. Chief Merasty is a member of the Peter Ballantyne Cree Nation within Treaty Six territory.

“As a community builder, Chief Merasty’s entrepreneurial drive has contributed to significant economic partnerships for First Nations people in the province,” says SIAS president and CEO Dr. Bob McCulloch.

The PAGC is involved with several successful businesses, including major hotels in Prince Albert and Saskatoon, West Wind Aviation and the Dakota Dunes Golf and Country Club. The PAGC is also a partner in the non-profit Northern Broadband Network, established in 2003, to develop and implement Internet access to communities and schools across the north.

Grand Chief Merasty is a SIAS alumni, having completed the Industrial Mechanics Pre-employment program at SIAS Kelsey Campus in the early ‘80s. He played hockey with the Kelsey Amaruks and continues to support minor hockey. He coaches and has raised significant funds (more than $200,000) to support minor hockey development for Aboriginal children.

SIAS’s honorary diploma program recognizes distinguished achievements and contributions aligned with SIAS’s vision, values, goals and objectives.

SIAS is Saskatchewan’s primary public institution for post-secondary technical education and skills training, recognized nationally and internationally for its expertise and innovation. Almost 12,000 students are registered in SIAST programs, which touch every sector of the economy; additionally, the organization draws more than 27,000 individual course registrations. It operates campuses in Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Regina and Saskatoon, and provides a number of courses and programs through distance education.

The PAGC represents 12 First Nations in Saskatchewan with a membership of more than 30,000 people.
