SIAST launches international documentary

Raising awareness of development issues in West Africa

March 28, 2008 – SIAST is launching its latest documentary, titled “Where’s Wa?”, to raise awareness of development issues in Wa, a community located in one of the most underdeveloped areas of Ghana off the Gulf of Guinea in West Africa. The 11-minute film investigates the history of Wa, development of Wa Polytechnic and SIAST’s involvement with Wa Polytechnic.

The film was produced by SIAST multi-media specialist Tom Bartlett and recent graduates of SIAST’s Media Arts Production program, Karen Elliott and Christian Moulding.

The first of four launches at SIAST campuses will take place:

Date: Monday, March 31
Time: 11:30 a.m.
Location: SIAST Woodland Campus
Academic Centre (Room 232)
1500 – 10th Avenue East
Prince Albert

The launch will begin with a viewing of the documentary, followed by a short presentation by representatives from Wa Polytechnic.
