SIAS students beat the cold snap with winter festival activities

SIAS Woodland Campus keeps students moving with a variety of fun and wacky activities for Winter Festival Week

February 6, 2008 – SIAS Woodland Campus recreation department and the Woodland Students' Association are warming things up at the campus this week with winter festival activities. Monday, students kicked off the celebration with a pie throwing contest, and today they hit the slopes for a ski and snowboard night. The festival finishes on Thursday with the Woodland Amazing Race.

Media are welcome to attend.
