

Halifax Ambassador Award Recipient – October 4, 2013

Dr. Lynn Miller

Congratulations to Dr. Lynn Miller, faculty, Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program, on receiving the Halifax Ambassador Award.

The Halifax Ambassador Program is an alliance of individuals who promote Halifax as a premier destination. Ambassadors are people who are proud of their city and its institutions and want to showcase Halifax to their friends and colleagues from around the world.

In 2011 Lynn initiated the effort to host the 2013 Canadian Association of Advanced Practice Nurses (CAAPN) conference in October 2013 that attracted approximately 150 delegates from across Canada.
