In 2012-13, the Nursing Division continued its successful journey in the delivery of 16 innovative and award-winning programs to more than 5,000 students. Using a distributed learning model, programs were offered on-campus, in various communities, and through print distance, videoconferencing and online delivery.

Our impressive team of 255 expert faculty and staff demonstrated dedication and commitment to providing quality education in a supportive and student-friendly environment. Achieving our priority of putting students first resulted in improved student-centred learning and increased success.

We look forward to continued success in the Nursing Division as we focus our efforts on the achievement of four strategic themes of building successful careers, advancing economic and social prosperity, leveraging educational innovation and leading organizational effectiveness.

Dr. Netha Dyck
Dean, SIAST Nursing Division
Introduction

The 2012–13 academic year was filled with excitement as we celebrated many firsts. The year concluded with a notable first and a historic announcement. The Ministry of Advanced Education provided authorization for SIAST to implement its first degree program – the Bachelor of Psychiatric Nursing Degree Completion program. The program will be implemented in the fall of 2013.

We successfully completed the delivery of Year 2 of the Saskatchewan Collaborative Bachelor of Science in Nursing program. In addition, an accelerated option was developed and implemented in which students continued their studies during the spring and summer session and will complete the program eight months ahead of schedule. Furthermore, plans were developed for the delivery of the SCBScN program in Swift Current starting in September 2013.

Capitalizing on the success of our first joint program, we collaborated with the University of Regina on another significant initiative. The two institutions will offer an online collaborative master of nursing, nurse practitioner program starting in September 2014. This type of collaborative nurse practitioner program is the first of its kind in Canada.

The Perioperative Nursing program capacity was expanded by 28 seats for a total of 46 seats to meet the growing demand for perioperative nurses in Saskatchewan. As well, the Orientation to Nursing in Canada for Internationally Educated Nurses program experienced significant growth, reaching its highest enrolment with 84 students.

In addition, the Practical Nursing program offered its first international clinical experience. Described as a life-changing experience, a group of eight students participated in this unique opportunity to learn about nursing and health care in Kampala, Uganda.
