

November 15, 2011

Dear Colleagues,

I am very pleased to congratulate Billy-Jo Howe on her appointment as Program Head of the Wascana Practical Nursing Program.

Billy-Jo Howe

Billy-Jo has enjoyed a dynamic career in nursing practice, nursing education and administration for the past 16 years. She has been a faculty member with the Wascana Practical Nursing Program since 2002 and has provided leadership as the Curriculum Facilitator since 2007. During that time Billy-Jo participated in the program's major curriculum redesign.

Prior to joining our team at SIAS, Billy-Jo provided leadership as a Home Care Supervisor, and as a registered nurse in Public Health, Hemodialysis and Home Care. Billy-Jo is a graduate of the SIAS Practical Nursing program, as well as a graduate of the first co-hort of the NEPS program. She also holds a Masters in Adult Education from the University of Regina.

Billy-Jo has provided leadership as the interim program head since June 2011 and will now transition into the ongoing position. Billy-Jo is located at SIAS Wascana Campus in Regina and can be reached at 775-7567 or billy-jo.howe@siast.sk.ca.

Please join me in congratulating Billy-Jo on her new appointment.

Sincerely,

Netha Dyck
Dean of Nursing
