

April 12, 2010

Dear Colleagues,

I would like to let you know about the staffing change within the CPR/First Aid and Occupational Health and Safety Practitioner Program.

Lynn Sheridan

Lynn Sheridan, Program Head, CPR/First Aid and Occupational Health and Safety Practitioner Program, Kelsey Campus will be retiring on April 16, 2010. Lynn has provided exemplary service to SIAS and the Nursing Division for over 10 years. Lynn is a recognized leader in occupational health and safety education and practice, as well as an exceptional faculty with the OH&S Practitioner program and formerly with the Nursing Education Program of Saskatchewan (NEPS) and Practical Nursing programs.

Lynn has been recognized for her leadership in establishing a faculty mentorship program and received the Saskatchewan Registered Nurses' Association Mentorship Award in 2007. Lynn also received the SIAS Outstanding Service Award in 2009. I congratulate Lynn on her distinguished career and thank her for her invaluable contribution to SIAS and the broader community.

Kim Mann

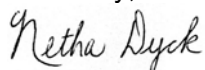

I am very pleased to congratulate Kim Mann on her appointment as Program Head, CPR/First Aid and Occupational Health and Safety Practitioner Program, Kelsey Campus effective April 8, 2010.

Kim has 12 years of diverse experience as an Occupational Health and Safety Practitioner. In her most recent position as an Environment, Health, and Safety Coordinator at Viterro, she coached staff regarding EHS strategies, developed and implemented EHS education, and conducted safety inspections. Kim has provided leadership as a Regional Occupational Health and Safety Coordinator at Agri-Food Canada, as well as with the Saskatchewan Research Council. Kim began her career as an office administrator with the Saskatoon Board of Education. Kim is a Canadian Registered Safety Practitioner and has completed programs in Occupational Health and Safety at the University of Alberta, as well as in Business Administration at the University of Saskatchewan.

Kim can be reached at 659-4083 or kim.mann@siast.sk.ca

Please join me in congratulating Lynn on her distinguished career of leadership and service and in welcoming Kim to her new position.

Sincerely,

Netha Dyck
Dean of Nursing
