IMPORTANT APPLICATION INFORMATION

SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS

- A non-refundable application fee must be submitted with each application for admission. You may apply and pay by any of the following methods:
 - Online ($50.00) (using credit or debit)
 - By mail ($75.00) (with a cheque payable to Saskatchewan Polytechnic)
 - In person ($75.00) (using credit, debit, cash, or cheque payable to Saskatchewan Polytechnic)
- Applicants may apply for more than one program provided that a separate application form and required documentation and fees are submitted with each application. Translations must be included for documents submitted in a language other than English.
- Domestic applicants (Canadian citizens and permanent residents) with international documents are charged an additional assessment fee. See Tuition and Fees policy 1214-G at www.saskpolytech.ca.
- International applicants must complete the International Student Application for Admission form.
- Saskatchewan Collaborative Bachelor of Science in Nursing (SCBScN) applicants must complete the SCBScN Application for Admission.
- Once your application has been received and processed, you will receive an electronic communication, and further information about the status of your application. Please be sure to advise Registration Services of any change in your contact information.

TRANSCRIPTS

All final official transcripts must be submitted to Saskatchewan Polytechnic directly from the office maintaining official records. Official high school transcripts are required by August 1. Official post-secondary transcripts for the purpose of admission based on post-secondary credits must be submitted within 60 days of the date of application. Official post-secondary transcripts for the purpose of transfer credit must be submitted by the program start date.

High school transcripts are not required for the following specific programs in the School of Nursing: Diabetes programs, Re-entry programs, Orientation to Nursing in Canada for Internationally Educated Nurses, and Perioperative Nursing programs.

Applicants currently enrolled in any high school courses must submit a completed Interim High School Transcript for programs using the First Qualified/First Admitted admission method. Conditional admission is granted on the basis of the Interim Transcript. Admission is considered final upon receipt of the official transcript.

Saskatchewan high school students and graduates must arrange for their transcripts to be submitted electronically, from the Saskatchewan Ministry of Education, at the end of semester 1 (high school applicants to high-demand programs only), and the end of semester 2 (all applicants). For Grades 10, 11, 12, and Adult Basic Education 12, requests to this ministry must be made online at www.saskatchewan.ca/residents/education-and-learning.

For Adult Basic Education Grades 10 and 11, and GED, go to www.saskatchewan.ca.

For more information about submitting transcripts from other provinces, see www.saskpolytech.ca (High School and Post Secondary Transcripts).

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

Proof of English proficiency is required of applicants whose first language is not English, and for applicants who completed secondary education in a school where English was not the primary language of instruction and examination. Saskatchewan Polytechnic has approved a number of ways for applicants to provide evidence of proficiency. Official transcripts or test scores must be provided. See www.saskpolytech.ca (English Language Requirements).

SPECIAL ADMISSION

Applicants who do not possess the academic qualifications for a program may be admitted if evidence of probable success can be established through a special admission assessment. Applicants who do not meet regular admission requirements are referred for special admission to First Qualified First Admitted programs. Special admission does not apply to designated high-demand programs.

Saskatchewan Polytechnic uses ACCUPLACER as its official special admission assessment tool for testing various math and English skills. Cut scores have been established for most Saskatchewan Polytechnic programs.

Where applicable, specific prerequisite course requirements must be met in order to be admitted under special admission.

Home-based learners are encouraged to refer to www.saskpolytech.ca for specific admission information.

COMMUNICATION

If you are a new Sask Polytech student, you will soon receive a letter by regular mail providing you with mySaskPolytech login information. If you do not receive this letter within two weeks of application, please contact Registration Services. All further communication concerning your admission will be provided to you on mySaskPolytech. When a communication has been posted there for you, you will receive an email from us indicating that you have an electronic letter and directing you to the mySaskPolytech portal.
