

Cultural Conversations

Amy Seesequasis

She is the Director of Public Education with the Office of the Treaty Commissioner (OTC) and is also a member of their Speakers Bureau

Tuesday

November 16, 2021

1:00 -3:00 p.m.

Treaty Implementation through Truth and Reconciliation

She has been with the OTC since 2012, and has served in various capacities and departments within the organization . She brings a wealth of knowledge on Treaty Education, Indigenous history and awareness and the Land Sharing Network. Amy describes herself as a seeker and sharer of knowledge. an artist and storyteller and dancer. She is part of the Creeland Dancers, an Indigenous dance troupe formed in 1984 and that specializes in a fusion of Métis jigging and square dancing.

To register for this WebEx event click here

For more information contact First Nations & Métis Relations

Julie.Haubrich@saskhealthauthority.ca

Saskatchewan
Health Authority

saskhealthauthority.ca

Funded by the Government of Canada

Canada